

I oppose the weakening of the Indiana Do Not Call legislation by the CBA. These types of institutions are affiliated with and end up trying to sell you the same types of crap any other company bothers you with. I receive enough junk mail from them I certainly don't want junk calls!